OCT 1981

THE MANCHESTER BEER DRINKER'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE

PLUS ONE ...

The Altrincham Real Ale Crawl recently increased by one when Chesters bitter (hand-pumped) became available in the Unicorn, Old Market Place. Scaffolding outside suggests a facelift is on the way.

...POSSIBLY TWO...

Strong rumours indicate that the Bakers Arms, Pownall Road, Altrincham, is to change from Whitbread to Hydes, which would be another real ale gain for the area.

OR THREE

Since the closure of their bottling plant, Hydes have been taking Whitbread bottled beers. As part of the deal they are getting two Whitbread pubs, one of them being the Bulls Head at Lymm.

HEROES HERE

On the border between the proud townships of Eccles and Swinton - in leafy Monton to be precise - there has been established a real ale off-licence, "Legendary Lancashire Heroes".

This worthy enterprise has brought together a tempting selection of ales, dispensed straight from the barrel or through the half dozen handpumps on the counter. The breweries regularly represented include Belhaven, Hydes, Boddingtons, Camerons, Hartleys, Ruddles, Robinsons, Taylors and Theakstons. These will be supplemented by a selection of "guest beers" from all corners of the realm and the choice will peak at weekends with ten or more different brews.

It is pleasing to see that the price per pint generally reflects the strength of the beer; the current range is 39p for Hydes mild to 66p for Theakstons Old Peculier. Customers can bring their own containers or purchase a variety of sizes on the premises. Party and festival organisers should note that cask sizes go up to 288 -pint barrels.

In addition to cask ale, there is a selection of wines and cider, together with sherries and whisky. A browse along the shelves will reveal bottles of special issue and rare brews from home and abroad.

Travellers in Lancastria may encounter two similar establishments in Darwen and Preston, but those seeking this welcome addition to the real ale scene should head for Rocky Lane, Monton. (Telephone 789 5669 for what's on, what's coming and opening times.)

GREENALLS SURVEY - ECCLES

The belief that Greenalls are now Public Enemy Number One is widely held in local CAMRA branches, but before any co-ordinated campaign is launched, comprehensive knowledge about Greenalls pubs in Greater Manchester is being obtained. The six Greenalls pubs in Eccles were surveyed on 23rd September.

Four of the six serve cask beer, the other two are on tanks. However, only one of the four cask pubs sells cask mild; the others have been converted to keg. Greenalls policy appears to be that if turnover falls below  $1\frac{1}{2}$  barrels a week for any cask beer, the licensee is asked to take kegs. Mild sales have fallen to such an extent that more and more pubs now sell keg mild. At the other end of the scale, large pubs with a turnover of 10 barrels a week are encouraged to sell tank beer. This is chilled and filtered and is served by the Porter Lancastrian system (air pressure on a plastic bag containing the beer in the tank). The two licensees of the tank pubs were enthusiastic about their beer, emphasising the hygiene and the value for money aspects.

The four cask landlords all had a positive attitude to traditional beer and regretted the loss of cask mild. They all recognised the impossibility of keeping mild in good condition when turnover was less than a barrel a week.

Only one of the six pubs was managed, and the prices here were 48p for mild and 50p for bitter. All the tenanted houses were either 2p or 1p a pint cheaper and all six pubs had a 2p differential between mild and bitter.

Overall, we gained the impression that Greenalls had a favourable attitude to cask beer in pubs with a turnover in the middle range of, say, 6 to 12 barrels a week, but that it was unrealistic to expect them to maintain cask beers in outlets with very low turnovers. There also seems little likelihood of their converting tank pubs back to traditional beer.

WHAT'S DOING

BODDIES BULLETIN

Mild - For the first time in years, sales of the recently improved mild, which won the first prize for cask-conditioned mild at the 1980 Brewex, are increasing.

Handpumps - Until recently, Boddingtons had a policy of changing from handpumps to electric pumps in all their tied houses. This has now changed. Although the brewery still prefers electric pumps, handpumps may be retained in tenanted houses or installed in new pubs. Two successes are:

Railway, Ramsbottom – bought from Whitbread
Milehouse, Cheetham Hill – undergoing modernisation
The Smut Inn, Hollinwood, may be added to this list, since Tommy Binns is keen to keep his handpumps.

New Acquisitions:-

George & Dragon, Elland Navigation, Mirfield

Fusilier, Prescott Railway, Ramsbottom

Beer Prices - The present managed house prices and recommended prices for tenants are 43p for bitter and 41p for mild. Tenants may charge a penny or two more, but "silly" prices, like 50p a pint for mild, are frowned upon and the tenant is soon told off.

OLD PACKET - NEW LANDLORD

Brian O'Leary took over as manager of the Old Packet House, Manchester Road, Broadheath, Altrincham on August 4th, after working for two years as a relief manager for Wilsons. He applied for the Packet because he particularly wanted a real ale house (mild and bitter are on handpumps) and aims to inject new life into the pub. Turnover has increased significantly since his arrival.

SO SOON?

Chesters bitter is no longer on sale at the Spread Eagle, Stamford Street, Ashton under Lyne.

STAMFORD STAYS

Burtonwood have decided not to sell the Stamford Arms in Stalybridge. Instead, they are going to close the pub for a while and renovate it.

WIGAN WICKET

Wigan Cricket Club, Bull Hey, Parsons Walk, Wigan, five minutes from the town centre, is now selling real ale. A new Bar Committee has recently been formed and, as a result, Matthew Brown's John Peel Special Bitter (48p) is on sale. The Cricket Club is the only outlet in the Wigan area to sell traditional Matthew Brown, and What's Doing readers are invited to try a pint of this excellent brew – after signing the visitors' book, of course!

GOOD GRIEF!

Scamps night club in Bolton has started selling cask beer. That's the good news; now for the bad – It costs 70p a pint and it's Greenalls.

GRAPE EXPECTATIONS

The Grapes (Boddingtons), Regent Road, Altrincham is undergoing extensive alterations and the finished product is beginning to take shape. It's nice to see that, at the tenant's request, four new pairs of handpumps are being installed. (Full write-up next month)

WESTMORLAND BREWERY

The South Lancs branch of CAMRA recently visited the Westmorland Brewery (formerly Appleby Brewery), which is situated in a small factory unit in Appleby. The company is also a wines, spirits and beer wholesaler, and recently acquired a tied house – the Water Witch at Lancaster. The brewer is Chris Roddis, who worked for Theakstons before going to study the art at Herriot Watt. Chris runs the brewery single-handed, working a seven day week and brewing on two of them. The brewery is producing around 15 barrels per week and the new brewing plant can cope with up to 40 barrels per week – the limiting factors are the fermenting vessels, which are converted pub cellar tanks. Most of the production goes to the Water Witch, but Slaters Bitter can also be found at the Horse & Farrier, Bentham, the Drunken Duck at Hawkeshead and the Lithwaite Hotel, Windermere.

NEW PACK

The Old Pack Horse, Audenshaw, has been given a new lease of life by Robinsons. Rumour had it that the brewery were going to knock the pub down and build a new one. Now they intend to knock through part of the existing living quarters and make a separate games room and restaurant.

BREWERY TAP DRY?

Why is it that the Salford Arms, near Cook Street Brewery, runs out of cask beer so often? We should be told.

BURTONWOOD CHANGES

The Royal Oak, Standish Lower Ground, Wigan, has a new landlord. The pool table has gone from the lounge and decoration is in progress. Burtonwood have installed free-flow electric pumps, although the handpumps still stand on the bar, and light mild has been promised.

Two Burtonwood pubs in Wigan are closed for the time being - the Crown at New Springs, which requires repair, and the White Duck, Standish, which has tenancy problems.

WOOF! (3)

Clive Winkle's special brew, Kinder Bitter, brewed for High Peak CAMRA's beer tent at the Hayfield Sheep Dog Trials, proved to be a great success when it outsold the other beers a vailable (Marstons, Burtonwood, Wilsons and Robinsons). Not bad for a first-timer.

NEW LANDLORD

The Melville Hotel, Stretford, greeted new manager John Adams (previously of the Church, Newton Heath) on 14th September. The previous manager of the Melville, Colin Gowan, has departed to Harrow, Middlesex, to serve handpumped John Bull best bitter at the Apollo.

PRESS RELEASE

A police raid on the George & Dragon in Bridge Street, Manchester, at 12,40 am on Sunday August 16th was not widely reported in the local press. This obviously has nothing to do with the fact that among those present in the hostelry were Detective Superintendent Kenneth Foster, Head of Greater Manchester CID, and numerous local hacks. One wonders whether a responsible organ like Whats Doing would report the event if, say, Nestfeather and Periwinkle were caught bending the elbow A/T in the Rat and Handbag.

HANDPUMPS

Warrington Watchers report that Tetleys are installing handpumps in some managed houses. The Raven, Wigan, the Eagle & Hawk, Leigh, the Travellers Rest, Lamberhead Green and the Old Crow, Newton le Willows have all been converted recently. It is thought that there may be some managed pubs reverting to real ale in the near future.

TETLEYS

The policy of painting the exterior of some of their pubs in the new Walkers livery is no guarantee that the customer will find cask Walkers beers, or even Tetleys cask beers, on sale inside. Visitors to the Grey Mare, Bolton Road, Westhoughton, are still being fobbed off with keg beers, even though the handpumps remain on the bar. It does seem a waste, painting up the outside and leaving the staple product of a local such as this in a state of fizz. Things may be improving though, as Tetley Walker are currently looking for a Project Accountant "to conduct special investigations into areas of profitability." (and losses, presumably), as well as "fixed asset utilisation". With a bit of luck he'll prove once and for all that keg beer is less profitable than cask beer, just like Wilsons did a couple of years ago, and initiate the conversion of the pubs back to real ale.

HEYWOOD BEER FESTIVAL

As mentioned last month, the Rochdale, Oldham and Bury branch of CAMRA are assisting the Heywood Lions in organising a real ale extravaganza, to be held at the Civic Hall, Heywood, on Friday and Saturday 23rd/24th October. The festival will be open on Friday from 11.00am until 3.00pm and 5.00pm til 11.00pm; on Saturday from 11.00am til 3.00pm and 5.00pm til 11.00pm. Admission will be 50p at each session (pay at the door). Food will be available throughout the festival and the Bury Silver Band will entertain. A total of twenty breweries have been approached and it is hoped that at least thirty real ales and ciders will be available. Many local brews will be on sale, plus "out of town" beers such as Holdens, Simpkiss, Banks's, Darleys, Vaux, West Riding and Gooseye, to name but a few. There will be about six milds and three strong ales, together with Bulmers "scrumpy" (medium and dry).

All proceeds will go to charity. A publications stall (manned by CAMRA staff) will be selling local real ale guides and drumming up support for the cause. For further details contact Vic Chanin (Lions) 061 764 5251 (h) or Steve Lawton (CAMRA) 061 620 9239 (h)

HAPPY HOUR

The Station, Warrington Street, Ashton under Lyne, has a happy hour 'every Monday between 8.00pm and 9.00pm. During this hour, beer can be bought for 15p a pint cheaper than normal. Customers who get the taste for it and decide to stay for the whole evening will usually be entertained by a folk or jazz band.

UP FOR SALE?

The Dog & Partridge (Wilsons), Stacksteads, Rossendale is rumoured to be up for sale. Trade has dropped to a fairly low level and only bitter is now available. The publisself is fairly basic, except for the toilet facilities, which would do most pubs credit. Then again, superb toilet facilities don't attract customers, except perhaps a certain scouser. (Hello, Bogbrush)

RAIL ALE (96)

Blackburn Station bar is now selling Boddingtons - at 60p a pint.

CHEQUERED HISTORY

The regulars at the Harlequin, Middleton Road, Chadderton have welcomed the arrival of Walkers Warrington Ale with open arms (not to metion wobbly legs and bad heads). Peter Gibbs, the tenant – formerly manager of the Town Hall Tavern, Manchester – says that the beer is very popular. The pub itself has undergone a transformation this year, changing from a Wilsons managed house to a Tetley tenancy. This pub used to have a poor reputation, but Peter and his wife Jenny keep those people of a rantipolean* nature out of the pub – there is now a thriving football club, darts club and the local Round Table meet here. Good food at very reasonable prices is available throughout the lunchtime session and in the earlier part of the evening. What's Doing is also available.

*Rantipole - a rough sort of person, "Word of the Month" from Sheila Frazer

BURY BEER FEST

Full details will be given next month, but make sure that the weekend 4th/5th December (Fri/Sat) is kept free in your diary!

LIBERAL LEES

The new Timperley Liberal Club on Park Road, between Timperley Station and Frieston Road, is due to open on November 1st. Lees beers will be on sale, though initially not available in 'real' form. It is envisaged, however, that once trade becomes established and experienced volunteer bar staff can be found, that traditional Lees bitter and mild will be installed. There will be one lounge bar with a pool table, fruit machine and probably darts. Hours of opening will be 7-10.30 weekdays, 7-11.00 Fridays and Saturdays. It is hoped to be able to open Saturday and Sunday lunchtimes. One way of encouraging an early switch to real ale would be for as many CAMRA sympathisers as possible to join. Membership is £5.75 a year or £9.20 for joint membership, with concessions for senior citizens.

STAR TURN

Boddingtons' recent acquisition from Bass, the Star Inn on Old Street, Ashton under Lyne, is soon to be altered. The bar and the living quarters will be affected, and there will be a new beer drop.

OLDHAM HANDPUMPS

Oldham Brewery would appear to have modified their policy of converting pubs onto tank beer when they are modernised. The only recent exception was the Rose of Lancaster. However, the Westwood on Featherstall Road, still undergoing drastic alterations, now has two new handpumps in the lounge bar. One set of handpumps from the old bar is in use on the new tap room side. Perhaps OB might like to correct some of their past mistakes as well, or is that asking too much?

NAGGING QUESTION

The Old Nags Head, Liverpool Road, Irlam, has been given the Chesters "traditional image" treatment, but there has been no change over to real ale. There are a couple of mirrors stating that Chesters now "reflects tradition" – they might be doing in some pubs, but not in the Nag.

SNOTES

At last the Snotes Revolution has begun to falter. Two years ago the Isle of Man was subjected to the treatment, but the 'beer' has now all but vanished from the pubs. It is hardly surprising, as mainland prices were being charged - between 49p and 52p. Both Okells and Castletown beers sell at between 41p and 43p in all the pubs. Obviously, even the tourists from the mainland haven't been buying it, when they can get a better and cheaper cask product in every pub. Just think, if Bass were to wake up and brew good cask beers that were widely available, they wouldn't have to spend thousands on advertising keg rubbish like Snotes.

HARTLEYS

The Moses Gate Hotel, Farnworth, may soon be selling Hartleys bitter alongside Duttons. Hartleys also made an appearance in Audenshaw during the recent strike at Robinsons, when it was sold at the Old Pack Horse.

The Wilton Arms, 883 Belmont Road, Bolton, is now selling Hartleys XB and Bulmers Cider on handpumps in addition to the Duttons bitter.

HOPE SOLD

Wilsons have sold the Hope Inn on Greenacres Road, Oldham. The pub is now a free house selling Boddingtons and Oldham Brewery beers.

NAME THAT PUB

Holts are building a new pub on Fairy Lane in Cheetham. A prize of four pints in the new hostelry is offered for the pub name most fitting for the address. (8 pints if Holts use it). Printable suggestions so far include: Holts House at Gnome, Elf Service Pub, Raise the Titania, the Butch Arms.

PARROT IS STRANGLED

LICENSEE Mrs. Pat Shaw was stunned yesterday after a customer at her pub strangled her pet 15-year-old African grey parrot. The parrot, called Timmy, was a favourite with regulars at the Victoria Inn in Midland Place, Derby. Police are investigating.

DESK

Peter O'Grady

The refurbishment of the WHITE LION, Liverpool Road is now complete, and very nice it looks too. The food and the Chesters bitter are as good as ever, but it now appears that the chances of being able to purchase additional 'real' draught beers in the pub are very remote. This is disappointing, to say the least, and something that I'm sure Whitbread could do something about. Please.

Keg Tetleys bitter has joined the (somewhat variable) handpumped Marstons Pedigree at CORBIERES of St Ann Street.

The former ST ANN'S TAVERN (and the Kardomah above) have been sold. Initial indications are that a wine bar-type situation may soon develop.

Steve, the new landlord at the TOWN HALL TAVERN, complained that the Bass Appreciation Society (who are they?) have not been in to try the beer recently. I've tried to make up for their absence, but I can't do it all by myself. Friday and Saturday nights are fascinating in the THT – all the "New Romantics" pass through on their way to night clubs. Their costumes have to be seen to be believed!

The popularity of the MARK ADDY (-sur-Irwell) continues apace. A fact that is witnessed by the inability of certain CAMRA members to gain admittance on a Saturday night for being improperly dressed (put your trousers back on next time, Alan) and also that on a Friday/Saturday night they can sell 3x56 gallon barrels of Boddys!

Keeping pubs certainly runs in the Swanick family. Nancy Swanick, who runs the PEVERIL OF THE PEAK, Great Bridgewater Street, with her sons Maurice and Paul, tells me that relatives of theirs also run the ALBION (Whitbread), Ashton Old Road; the DERBY ARMS (Chesters), Ashton New Road, Clayton; the ROSE & CROWN (free house), Holmfirth, Leeds; the BELLE VUE BAR in Glasgow and the TULSK INN (draught poteen?) in County Roscommon. Is this a record?

A larger-than-life American whom I met on my travels around town (August Helms, PO Box 404, Union, NJ 07083, USA), who is also a CAMRA member, told me that the Wilsons beer in the HUNTING LODGE club on Oxford Road is "real". Is this true? Mr Helms would welcome correspondence on amber nectar related subjects.

The D-Notice and the English libel laws have always been anothem to the investigative journalist. Just as Bat Ears' betrothal to the painted harridan's step-grand-daughter was relegated to a piece of adulatory sycophancy on the front page of What's Doing, so our readers must remain in ignorance of other issues of moment. It would, no doubt, be sub-judice to describe a certain tavern keeper's secret operation, the subsequent fitting of a false part and the birth of an egg-bound creature to complete the Robert Newton look.

I am also unable to report on the real reason for Bogbrush's removal from the NE and must accept his ghosted gibberish as gospel. Nor can it be divulged that Tom Duckfoot, who made mock of Grotley members at the Tykeley Amber Nectar Show, is a transvestite, masquerading as one Clarissa Maynard-Melanthrop. This is, perhaps, something which is endemic, if recent evidence of cloning on the NE is anything to go by another fact which must remain unrecorded.

It is, however, a pleasure to be able to report on Drabs' recent policy reversal with regard to property maintenance. Since the early days of Josiah, prior to his appearance before a Master in Lunacy and his subsequent incarceration, Drabs' policy of apathetic neglect has been enshrined in the unwritten rules of the company. Build a pub, leave it for 70 years, knock it down, build another – that's the way it's always been done. But Perry, having elbowed Ebeneezer into touch, has turned all this on its head. Bored with throwing P45s at hapless alehousekeepers, our new, dynamic helmsman has started employing people. Formerly decaying Drabs outlets are now festooned with scaffolding, crawling with roofers, pointers, painters and a vast' array of other craftsmen.

How far will Perry go in stripping Drabs of its endearing idiosyncratic characteristics? The vinegar fly and the wino landlord are now mere nostalgic memories. The dilapidated pub with featured rising damp, emulsioned mahogany and mildewed carpets is fast giving way to the lego-identikit pub, or even the refurbished Edwardian tavern. Will Drabs keg re-emerge? Will Perry re-engage J Walter Pufflogger and employ their services to inundate Grotley with trendy advertising for their new wonder pubs? Who knows? Will Drabs be taken over by Blands? Heaven forbid. And finally, what will happen to Spotty Doris and Big Julie if Perry "improves" the Gungesmearers and the Rat and Handbag?

What's Doing's World's Nicest Landlord 1980 has departed from Greater Manchester. No doubt Bilkos and other local hostelries will be jammed with his former clientele, pining for his joviality, bonhomie and generosity.

BEWARE OF TOP PRESSURE?

Sir – Oscars in Cooper Street may sell cask beer, but it could well be "under the influence" of carbon dioxide (City Desk, Sept.) Should you venture in, take a spoon with you and stir your pint – you'll get some funny looks but you'll probably find two things:

1 - Lots of gas will bubble up from the depths and

2 - Your pint will taste better afterwards

THE INCOMPLEAT GUIDE

Sir - Yes indeed, sad but true! No longer will the Jolly Angler grace the pages of the National Good Beer Guide. There's nothing wrong with the pub, of course; it still serves an excellent pint, but our allocation of pubs remains the same and we felt that some representation of Whitbread's real ale pubs was required. All three Hydes pubs in central Manchester were in last year's guide, as was all the Holts pub. Perhaps the Eagle should have gone?

BRING ON THE CLONES

Sir - I couldn't help noticing the remarkable similarity between Tom Android and Elsie Clockwork-Nun. Are they by any chance related?

We at Robinson's think that what matters most about beer is its flavour. That's why we are still brewing beer the same way that we did a hundred years ago. Natural ingredients, the same timehonoured brewing ways, even on the same site - not many can say that!

And you can buy at least one, usually Best Mild Ale two and sometimes more of the traditional ales listed here in any Robinson's pub within 100 miles of Stockport. Not many can make that sort of claim either.

Now you can have Real Ale at home for parties or just for your own enjoyment. Available in Firkins and Pins*, complete with tap, stillage and detailed instructions, You can order from any Robinson's On or Off-Licence or Unicorn Wine Shops.

Old Tom Ale

Always available from Unicorn Wine, Lower Hillgate, Stockport, (just by the Brewery) 061-480 6571. And it's the cheapest way of buying beer. A little Best Bitter Ale more trouble perhaps but we think you will agree with us that it is worth it.

There are deposits on the casks, stillages and taps, returnable in full when you bring them back. You can borrow glasses, paying only for those you break or fail to return providing you also make appropriate purchases of items to fill them.

We strongly recommend that you place your order as soon as possible for Christmas or New Year use.

It's Robinson's . . . for Real.

When you buy any of these Robinson's Ales, you are buying Traditional Draught Beer -at its very best.
